

YouTube Video showing How to Create a New User Account

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gK2foiHRKvs>

This video is based on the Homes-Digest of Central Florida website, one of the sites from the SOS Home network, whilst the colors maybe different from the site you are logging into, the content and layout of the sites will be the same.

If this does not fully answer your questions please check out the text only version or watch the video again.

We will be adding new video's here covering new areas. If you have an idea for an area on the website to cover with a help video, please click the company information - and then the contact link above and make your suggestion.
